SOUP

Ned was making soup.

“I’ll include some pasta to chew on,”
he said. “That will fill us up.” He threw a handful into the pot.

Bella was hungry.

“Soup takes too long!” she moaned.

“Let’s play a game until lunch,” said

Ned. He gave Bella three clues.

The first clue said – “I can help you get clean, but not in a swimming pool.” Bella scooped up a bottle. “It’s shampoo!” she said.

The next clue said – “I’m not sweet, but I am sticky.”

Bella flew into her bedroom.

“It’s glue!” she yelled.

The last clue was tricky – “A panda can eat me.”

“We don’t have food a panda can eat. We’re not in a zoo,” she told Ned.

“Let’s have lunch,” said Ned.

The soup was next to a big plant.

“It’s the bamboo!” yelled Bella.

“Pandas eat bamboo! That was a super clue. It led me to my lunch!”

JUMPING JACK GAME

This is a game for two players. Each player has three counters, each set a different colour. Players choose to be Red or Blue and place one counter on each of their colours. Players take turns to move a counter by sliding it into an adjacent space or by jumping over their opponent's counter into an empty space. When a player lands on a word, he/she must read the word aloud. The winner is the first player to get all three of his/her counters in a straight line.
