

Spelling mix ups: how to choose the right word

Where: - an adverb relating to place or position

Where did you leave your coat?

Were: - plural past tense of the verb 'are'

We were playing football.

We're: - a contraction of 'we are'.

We're going to the zoo today!

Wear: - used to talk about clothing.

What are you wearing to the party?

