

Summer stories

Tight Fit – a story with igh spellings

Sid was a big, black slug. One night, it began to rain. Then lightning struck. Sid got a fright. The light flashed past him. "Right!" Sid sighed. "I might just fit into that snail shell."

Sid began to cram himself into the shell, but he was too big, and the shell was too tight!

Find the words with <igh>.

New vocabulary:

slug – an animal that looks like a snail but has no shell

cram – force something into a small space

Can you draw?

slug

lightning

light

tight

